Joseph Saved His Family

Genesis 42–46; 50

STORY POINT: GOD SENT JOSEPH TO EGYPT TO ESTABLISH A REMNANT.

Jacob and his family did not have enough food to eat. So when Jacob learned that there was food in Egypt, he sent 10 of his sons to buy some grain. His son Benjamin stayed home.

In Egypt, Joseph was in charge of giving out food. The brothers came to him and bowed down. Joseph knew who they were, but they did not recognize him. Joseph decided to test his brothers. "I think you are spies," Joseph told them. Joseph said, "Bring your youngest brother back to me to prove that you are not spies. But one of you must stay here."

The brothers went home. They told their father everything that had happened. When all the food was gone, Jacob asked his sons to go back to Egypt.

Joseph invited all of the brothers to his home for a meal. Joseph told his brothers, "I am Joseph, your brother! You sold me into Egypt, but God sent me here so I could save your people, a remnant, from the famine."

Joseph told his brothers to bring their families back to Egypt, where they would have enough food. On the way to Egypt, God spoke to Jacob in a vision. God said, "Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there. I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also bring you back to this land."

Christ Connection: God had a plan for Joseph's life. He allowed Joseph to suffer to rescue a whole nation. In a greater way, God planned for Jesus to suffer so that many—people from all nations—would be saved from sin.

An illustration showing Joseph standing and gesturing with his hands while speaking to his brothers. The brothers are kneeling on the ground in front of him, looking up at him with respect and awe. The background shows Egyptian structures like pyramids and a cartouche.
